SECTION ONE: READING COMPREHENSION

(6 points)

Jack Tippit and his wife, Isabel, who is Spanish, both work at the Regent hotel in the centre of London. Jack is a receptionist and Isabel works in the hotel bar.

Jack says, " Ten million people visit London every year. In our hotel we have fifty rooms, and we have visitors from all over the world. I speak English, German, French, and Spanish. I don't speak Japanese, but I want to learn it. Isabel speaks English, French, and Spanish, of course."

" Our visitors like doing many things. They have breakfast in the hotel restaurant, an English breakfast of eggs, bacon, tea, and toast. After breakfast they visit the Houses of Parliament and Buckingham Palace and go shopping in Harrods. They come back to the hotel at four o'clock and have tea and relax. Then in the evening, they go to the theatre. We work long hours, but we love our work. We like meeting people of all nationalities."
