In many countries, it's hard to get a job of any kind. There are many people who have jobs but not jobs they have chosen themselves. Perhaps, they work in a particular factory because it's the only place in their town . Others have to do what their families push them into . For some of them, The only thing that matters is money . They don't mind if the job is unpleasant .

Some of the best paid jobs have other attractions : security is something that attracts many people in jobs like banking, secretarial work or civil work . Teaching is a fairly secure job . A teacher has long holidays . Some find teaching interesting and satisfying, others do not .

Many teachers, nurses and other social workers have chosen their job, first to serve society. They also get satisfaction of meeting other people's needs of various kinds.
